Co-Occurring Collaborative Serving Maine

ccsme

www.ccsme.org

ccsme@ccsme.org

ABOUT US

CCSME advocates for best practices, encourages professional development, maximizes collaboration, and facilitates integrated health and behavioral health services. We offer training and technical assistance on topics including substance use disorders, mental health, and co-occurring disorders to different professions including prescribers, behavioral health clinicians, prevention professionals, peer support specialists, and recovery coaches.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

MAINE BEHAVIORAL HEALTH WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COLLABORATIVE

Intended audience: Behavioral Health Professionals

mbhwdc

Maine Behavioral Health Workforce Development Collaborative

MAR - JUNE	Peer Support Leadership Series for CIPSS | Randy Morrison, MPH, CIPSS (Application required)
MAR-MAY	Therapeutic Interventions for People Involved in the Criminal Legal System | Hartwell Dowling
MAR 27	Maximizing OUD Recovery Potential through Whole Person Care | Pat McKenzie, LCSW
MAR 28	Turning Healthcare into Housing: Solutions for Homelessness | Cullen Ryan; Rachel Solotaroff, MD; Amy West, MSN, FNP-C
APR 2-25	Certified Clinical Supervision Series | Christine McNulty, LCSW, CCS
APR 10-23	MHRT/C Domain 3: Ethics & Professional Conduct | Georgana Prudhomme, LCSW; Catherine Chichester, APRN

Learn more and register here: ccsme.org

PRESCRIPTION MONITORING PROGRAM SERIES

Intended audience: Prescribing Clinicians

MAR 12	Stimulant Treatment for Adult ADHD: Applying Evidence to SUDs | Leah Bauer, MD, FASAM; Andrea Truncali, MD, MPH
MAR 26	Staying Current: Updates to the BEERS Criteria | Sydney Springer, PharmD, MS, BCPS, BCGP
APR 16	The New Overdose Risk Score and Other PMP Tools to Improve Patient Safety | Elisabeth Fowlie Mock, MD
APR 30	Protecting Yourself and Your Practice: The DEA Perspective | Jed Nitzberg

Learn more and register here: mesudlearningcommunity.org